Historical Background and Policy Genesis

In the early 2010s, Broward County Public Schools (BCPS) sought to strengthen school discipline and safety measures. The dress code became a focal point, rooted in the belief that appropriate attire contributes to a focused academic environment. The policies also aimed to address concerns from parents and teachers about inappropriate attire, while balancing students' rights to expression.

Broward County's dress code aimed to strike this balance, emphasizing modesty, safety, and professionalism. Culturally, the policies aimed to respect diversity while maintaining standards conducive to an academic environment.

Core Components of the Broward County Dress Code (2013-2014)

The dress code during these years was comprehensive, covering various aspects of student attire and grooming. It was structured to be clear, enforceable, and aligned with educational goals.

General Dress Code Principles

- Cleanliness and Neatness: Students are expected to wear clean, well-maintained clothing.
- Non-Disruptiveness: Clothing should not distract or disturb the educational process.

Specific Clothing Items and Restrictions

The detailed list included, but was not limited to:

- Bottoms: Must be worn at the waist; no sagging pants or shorts shorter than fingertip length.

- Gang-related insignia or colors
- Pajamas or sleepwear
- Clothing that promotes drugs, alcohol, or violence

The district provided training for staff and communicated expectations clearly to students and parents at the start of each school year. Schools also adopted a progressive discipline approach, aiming to correct rather than punish minor infractions.

While many appreciated the clarity and focus on safety, some students and parents viewed the dress code as restrictive or overly rigid. Common concerns included:

- Limited personal expression
- Difficulties in adhering to strict guidelines for students from diverse cultural backgrounds
